JUL 1962

MEMORANDUM FOR: General Leon W. Johnson, USAP
Director, Net Evaluation Subcommittee
Room 2B245, The Pentagon
Washington 25, D.C.

SUBJECT : CIA Representation on the Net Evaluation Subcommittee

I would like to nominate [redacted] [redacted] to replace [redacted] as CIA representative to the Net Evaluation Subcommittee. The change to take place sometime in mid-August. [redacted] has for a number of years been Chief of the Military Division in our Office of Current Intelligence. He attended the National War College in 1954-55. I am confident you will find him well qualified for the job.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director/Intelligence

1. After a lot of agonizing we have decided to waive the nomination of [ ] for the NESC job. Presumably, this means it will go to [ ] [ ] who I feel sure will carry it with distinction.

The kind of expertise acquired in this job is, of course, much more useful to the work of ONE than to that of OCI. RJ, therefore, need not be surprised if, after [ ] tour of duty, I let him (RJ) know that I think it is a good idea for Mel to join us.

TO : Deputy Director, Intelligence                      DATE: 25 June 1962

FROM : Acting Assistant Director, National Estimates

REF : AD/CI memo to DD/I, 25 June 62, "Replacement for NESC"

SUBJECT: As Above

Since O/NE also has a candidate  for the NESC job and since this office has traditionally filled the slot, I would like to request that you delay any final decision until Mr. Kent's return on 9 July.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Intelligence)
SUBJECT : Replacement for NESC

I wish to propose [ ] name
as replacement for [ ] in the CIA slot on the Net Evaluation Sub Committee. From my own experience in this job I can say that [ ] is extremely well qualified for it; I also think that both he and OCI would profit greatly from the education he would receive.
